1896.

PREFACE.

Among the interesting features of this sale will be found a fine set of U. S. Cents, the property of our esteemed friend, T. B. Bennell, Esq., London Shoemaker and American Coin Dealer, 304 Broadway, New York; seven Side View Bank Tokens, Penny and Halfpenny size, a set formed during the last 25 years by an advanced Canadian collector; a number of the curious and rare Bouk or copper bar money of Java; fine Vernon medals; three rare Peace medals commemorating the Independence of the U. S.; three rare Masonic medals from Mexico; Mexican medals and proclamation coins; rare siege money of the sixteenth century; several desirable Half Dollars, Dimes and Half Dimes; valuable Coin Books; the Bennell Coin Cabinet suitable for a small collection of U. S. Coins, etc., etc.

I beg to remind collectors that my sales are absolute and without reserve, hence there is always presented in them a very excellent opportunity of purchasing good coins at fair and low figures. This assertion is abundantly proved by the results of my sales. In the last one, for instance, out of a total of $1,370.98, I purchased for 44 bidders $533.65; $84.05 went to local buyers; $753.28 was the aggregate amount purchased by three Coin Dealers; much of this material, no doubt, to be placed in stock and resold at advanced figures.

In sending bids to myself or other dealers, collectors will remember that coins and medals are sold at so much per piece, not lot, and that bids must be made accordingly. Any special information cheerfully furnished. Bids for this sale solicited. In sending orders, collectors should indicate how purchases are to be made.

Orders from unknown buyers, unless accompanied with a cheque for at least 25 per cent. of intended purchases, or with bank references, will be ignored.

Je prie messieurs les collectionneurs du Canada de m'adresser directement tous leurs ordres.

ED. FROSSARD,
